

GREAT BOOKS
AT THE
CAMBRIDGE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Please join us for the library's Great Books Group, which meets every other Tuesday between Columbus Day and Memorial Day (except in late December) from 7:30 - 9:00 PM. Most, if not all, of this year's meetings will be held at the Main Library (449 Broadway).

We read outstanding works of fiction and non-fiction in English, or in English translation, from Africa, the Americas, Asia, and Europe. Then we use the simple Great Books method of shared inquiry to exchange thoughts with other participants.

All sessions are free and open to the public. The library provides copies of all readings to registered members. You may join at any time. There are no educational, residency, or attendance requirements for membership. For more information, call 857-235-9843 and ask for Hugh Crane.
